- Invitation from The Council for Research Ethics at Södertörn: Online Research Ethic Workshop, 23 November 2021, 10.00 -15.00. Are you interested in deepening your understandings of research misconduct, aspects of fraudulent behaviour – such as plagiarism, falsification and fabrication or unjustified vindication and suppression of authorship? Are you planning to apply for an ethical review? Are you supervising a PhD-student whose project might need to go through review at the Swedish Ethical Review Authority (or, perhaps you are unsure of whether your research needs to go through ethics review at all)? Then save the date! A link for signing up will be distributed/provided nearer the time.
- News from Forte: Starting with the 2022 call period, Forte's annual open call for proposals will change. The application process for project grants will be transformed into a one-step process, the junior researcher grant will be removed, and postdoctoral grants will become an independent call for proposals. Read more about these changes on Fortes website.
- Information: Mistra's new programme call – Biodiversity and the financial system. If you are planning to apply for this call, please contact The Grants Office and if you need support in setting up / building collaborations, please contact Samverkan. Mistra is having an information meeting in English, via Zoom, on 6 October 09.00–10.30. It will be possible to ask questions during the meeting. Register here.
